

Please leave this law intact as is. I have never had a telemarketer persuade me to do anything, especially while I am trying to make dinner. I do not want unsolicited calls being made a year and a half after I've already said "no".

Please leave the no-call list as is.